Recruitment Information system

Information system to handle the recruitment process in hospital of national Guard.

Functional Requirements:

Applicant user:

- Should be able to upload an application.
- Should be able to track his application process.
- Should be able to submit the initial exam when his application approved.
- Should be able to submit the English exam when his initial exam result is “pass”.
- Should be able to upload medical check when he asked to.
- Should be able to sign contract when asked to.

Recruiter user:

- Should be able to display table of all new incoming application.
- Should be able to review an application.
- Should be able to put marks of initial exam of applicant.
- Should be able to do additional requirements when dealing with an applicant of type “administrative position”.
- Should be able to put the result of interview with the applicant.
- Should be able to put the result of medical check with the applicant.
- Should be able to put the result of sign contract.

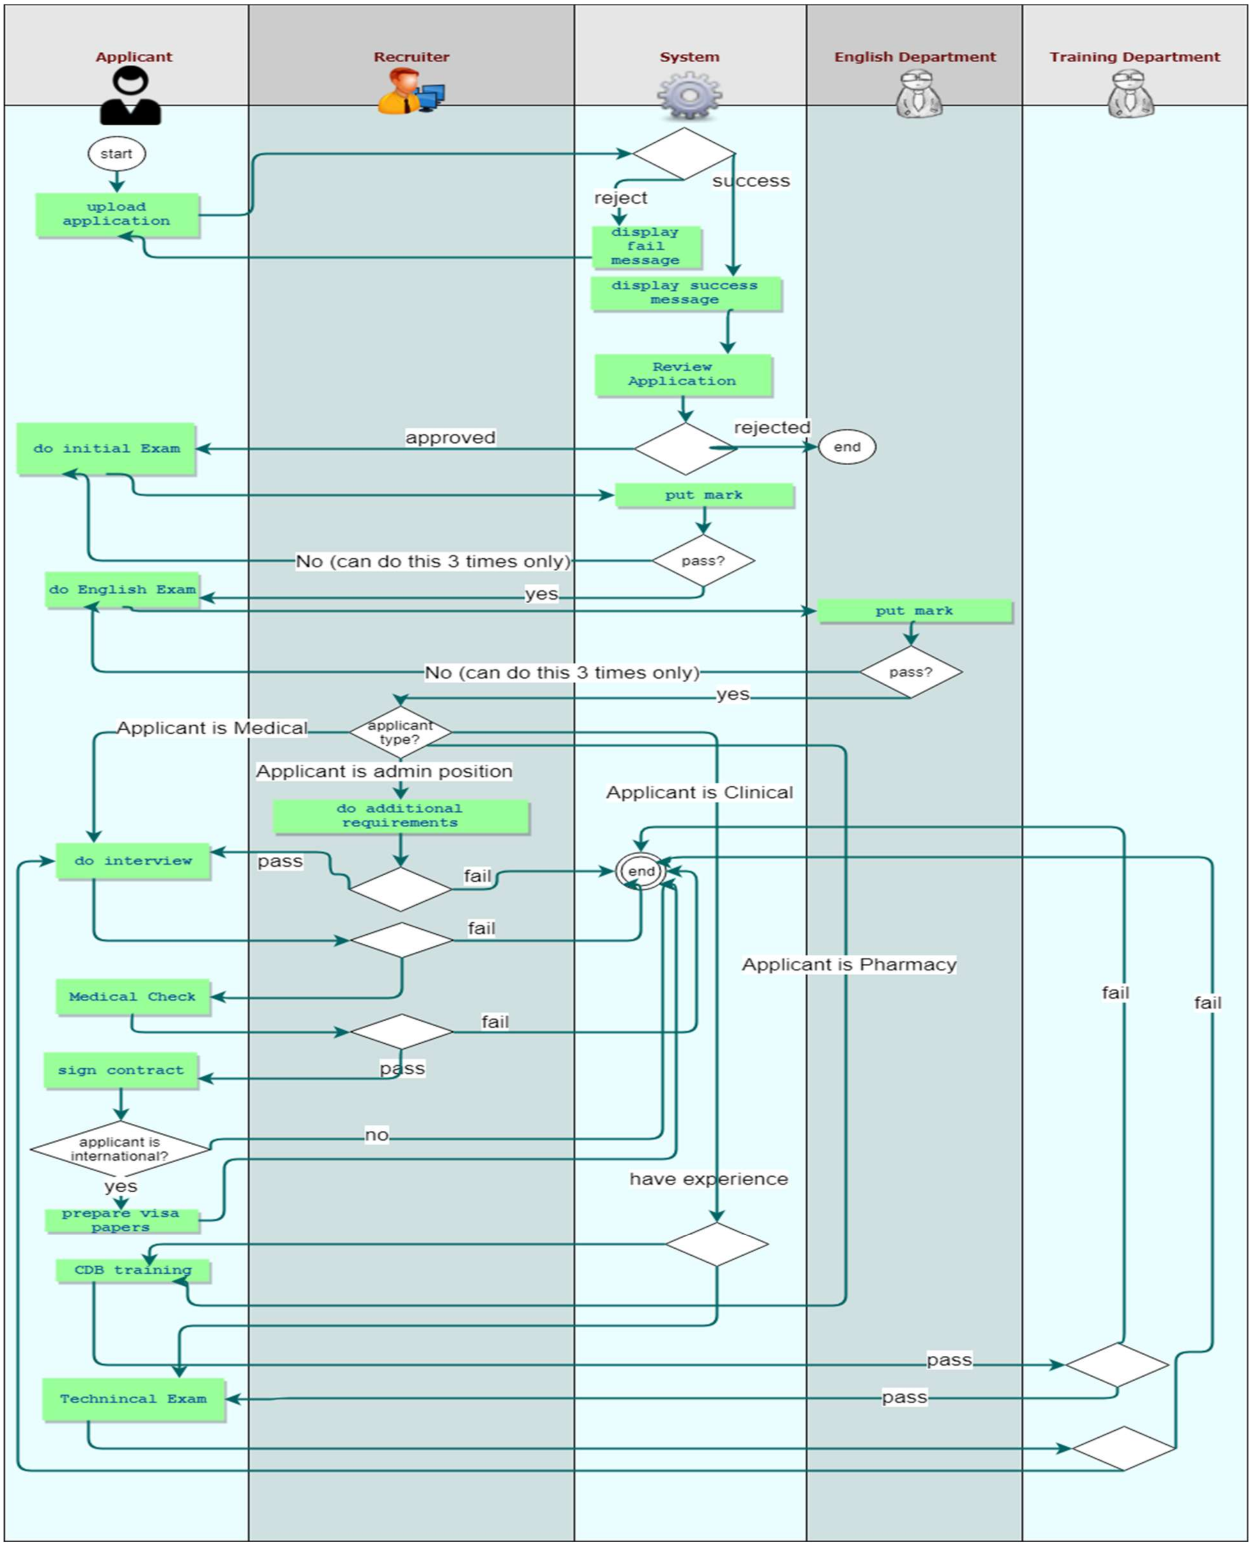
English Department user:

- Should be able to put marks of English exam of applicant.

Training Department user:

- Should be able to put the result of CDB training.
- Should be able to put the technical exam result.

Non-functional requirements:

- User-friendly system.
- Online-based system.
- Applicant screens should be cross browser (can fit on all browsers on all size of screens).


Activity diagram: